The Secretary,
Mysore Legislative Council,

I think that the Legislative Council which was given the privilege of electing two members to the Economic Conference elected only one for 1920 and it was then understood that it stood good for only one year. Since then I learn that the term of the members has throughout been extended for 2 more years. As there was but one candidate alone for 1920, I applied to be taken as a member, but as it was too late when I applied, nothing could be done; but when the term of the members was extended, somehow the election of the 2nd member whom the Council could return does not seem to have been considered and therefore there is but one member and not two from the Council on the Board. May I therefore request that the matter may be kindly placed before the Government so that steps may be

Member, Executive Council

Sir

With reference to your letter of the 18th June 1921 requesting action to be taken for the election of another member to the Economic conference from the Legislative Council, I am directed to state that at the time of the election last year applications were called for from intending candidates and ~~=~~ only one member ~~proposed~~ offered himself for election who was duly declared elected the other seat remains vacant from the beginning and the term of the elected member is for three years according to para 12 of G. O. No 514-66 D.E.C dt 15-11-19 dt 12-7-1919 reconstituting the Conference.

In these circumstances Govt. do not consider it necessary to hold a fresh election for filling up the vacancy before the expiry of the term of the present elected member.

I am to add that a ~~vacancy~~ election is held only when the Leg. Council is reconstituted or when the elected member vacates his seat after ~~his~~ his term of 3 years or his seat falls vacant from some other cause. (vide List of enclosures. Para 10 (4) of the G.O. dt 12-7-1919 for the July 1919 reconstituted the Conference.
